

“Food for Thought” Seminar Program – 2008

No.	Date	Time	Title	Presenter
1	01 April	2.15 – 3.45 pm	Mini-Seminar: Overview of the RD Project Methodology and Outputs	RD Project team (Kam, Bose, Pemsl, Barth, Teoh)
2	10 April	2 – 3 pm	Competition and Competitiveness	Prof. Dr. Vijendra N. Asopa, Indian Institute of Management, India
3	29 April	11 am – 12 noon	Valuing Living Aquatic Resources (LAR) of Wetlands in China	Kam Suan Pheng (and project team)
4	12 May	2 – 3 pm	Fisheries and HIV/AIDS in Africa: Investing in Sustainable Solutions	Saskia Husken - WorldFish Zambia
5	27 May	2 – 3 pm	Big Numbers Project: Fisheries data and information and their collection in Malaysia	David Walfoort (Intern HQ)
6	03 June	2.30 – 3.30 pm	The amazing horse shoe crab	Dr Anil K. Chatterjii, Institute of Tropical Aquaculture, University Malaysia, Terengganu
7	12 June	2 – 3 pm	An agro-ecosystems approach to aquaculture and inland fisheries: fish out of the water?	Martin van Brakel and Sophie Nguyen-Khoa
8	26 June	2 – 3 pm	Corporate Social Responsibility and Public Private Partnerships in the Fisheries Sector	Lena Hohfeld (Intern HQ)
8a	02 July	11.00 – 12.00 am	Re-defining spatial knowledge for addressing sustainability in wetland- agriculture systems	Dr Nidhi Nagabhatla
9	14 August	2 – 3 pm	Evaluating cultural change: using qualitative methods to assess impact on enterprise culture in a micro/small enterprise (MSE) development project	Nireka Weeratunge-Starkloff
10	26 August	2 – 3 pm	From Dull Spots to Bright Spots: A potential approach to addressing rural poverty and the food crisis.	Andrew Nobel, IWMI
11	04 September	2 – 3 pm	Participatory governance for resilience	Luisa Evans
12	18 September	2 – 3 pm	Adoption and farm-level impact of GIFT in the Philippines	Diemuth Pemsl
13	25 September	2 – 3 pm	Small in name, big in number: Preliminary findings of the ‘Big Numbers Project’	David Mills
14	09 October	2 – 3 pm	Small project, big impact: ethnic women in aquaculture in Nepal	Jharendu Pant
15	23 October	2 – 3 pm	Public Private Partnerships in Fisheries and Aquaculture in Developing Countries in Asia and Africa – a Review	Matthias Pfeiffer (Intern HQ)

16	30 October	2 – 3 pm	Community-based fish culture in seasonal floodplains and irrigation systems	Natasja Sheriff
17	05 November	2 – 3 pm	From local to global: An insight into the vulnerability of fisheries production systems to climate variability and change	Marie-Caroline Badjeck
18	13 November	2 – 3 pm	Fishing for GIS	Silvia Renn
19	20 November	2 – 3 pm	Pacific Region mini-symposium	Pip Cohen and Alexander Tewfik
20	01 December	2 – 3 pm	Value chain analysis, poverty and the environment: Reflections on the Nile perch value chain from East Africa	Dr. Stefano Ponte, DIIS, Denmark
21	11 December	2 – 3 pm	Towards an ecological intensification of agriculture	Dr. Christian Witt, Director South-East Asia Regional Office IPNI

Note: Yellow highlights mark external presenters