Any and all original material on the WorldFish website may be freely distributed at will under the Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial-No Derivatives 3.0 License, unless otherwise noted. All material that is not original to the WorldFish Center may require permission from the copyright holder to redistribute.

You do NOT have to ask permission to post original WorldFish material on a mailing list or newsgroup, to use the WorldFish logo as a pointer to us on your web site, or to reprint a WorldFish statement in a newspaper article. Permission to do such things is explicitly granted.

If you redistribute something you got from the WorldFish website, it is appreciated if you make it known where the file originated, so people can get more information or updated versions.

Visitors to the WorldFish website agree to grant a non-exclusive, irrevocable, royalty-free license to the rest of the world for their submissions to www.worldfishcenter.org under the Creative Commons Attribution 3.0 License.

The WorldFish Center respects the intellectual property of others, and we ask users of our websites to do the same. If you believe that any material on the WorldFish websites infringes upon any copyright which you own or control, or that any link on this website directs users to another website that contains material that infringes upon any copyright which you own or control, you may file a notification of such infringement with our Designated Agent as set forth below. Notifications of claimed copyright infringement must be sent to the WorldFish Center's Designated Agent for notice of claims of copyright infringement. Our Designated Agent may be reached as follows:
